Russia is not, at present writing, entirely completed as to details, but will offer a most delightful trip for those who have already visited England and the Continent and particulars will be given in a short time. In securing Dr. Paine to assume the management of these tours we have a guarantee that members will be taken care of in a thoroughly first-class manner, even in Paris, where those having less experience would have difficulty in securing good accommodations during the Exposition. Do not delay in making your arrangements to go, for already some steamship lines are making many bookings. Ten have already signified their intentions of going. A circular, giving a complete itinerary, with dates of visits and length of time spent at each place, will soon be ready for distribution and will be sent to all who desire to look the matter up....
