Forgotten Books, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Excerpt from The School Paper Like most teachers who are concerned with the School Paper, the writer did not take up the work because of his interest in it - that came later, - but partly because students came to him for help of one sort or another, partly because he was one of those to whom happened to be assigned a task somebody had to do, and nobody wanted. The pages that follow are the result of a dozen years observation of the workings of the writer s own school, and of other as he has become acquainted with them through professional literature, discussions at educational gatherings, and private inquiry. Perhaps what more than anything else led him to write it out was the inquiry of the editor of an Ohio school paper, whose letter ended, in capitals, How do you do it? No attempt is made at academic discussion. The Educator will look in vain for profundity of thought or brilliancy of expression. The practical teacher may say in criticism that he knew it all before. Very likely he did. The title might have been What a Young Editor Ought to Know; and if he finds here indeed what he needs to know and no one has told him; if he finds anything to help him in his difficult and perplexing endeavors; the purpose of the writer will be fulfilled. The senior author is solely responsible for Part I. To Part II he has contributed only editorially, this portion being the work of Mr. Lynn, whose experience as editor of student publications of various types enables him to speak of the matters under discussion from...
