In this companion activity book there are plenty of pictures to color and write about especially the ones of Princess Julia as she was growing up. Her parents snapped many photos of her doing some very silly things. Word games, puzzles and hidden objects add to the fun. But even the life of a princess can sometimes be difficult as we see in Making Room, one of three new poems in this book. You ll love her more, she finally cried To her parents who had not seen That her every question had been a plea, Let there still be room in your hearts for me. What a heartbreaking thing for a child to say or a parent to hear. Find out how it turned out for Julia, and her parents, the king and queen. (Spoiler alert: it has a happy ending.) So a little touch of something serious in a book that s lots of fun. Come join Julia as the adventure continues.
