Tao: The Pathless Path

By Osho

Renaissance Books. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Paperback. 192 pages. Dimensions: 8.2in. x 5.4in. x 0.5in. In his commentaries on five parables from the Leih Tzu, Osho brings a fresh and contemporary interpretation to the ancient wisdom of Tao. Leih Tzu was a well-known Taoist master in the fourth century B. C. , and his sly critiques of a Confucius provide abundant opportunities for the reader to explore the contrasts between the rational and irrational, the male and female, the structured and the spontaneous. Who Is Really Happy uses the discovery of a human skull on the roadside to probe into the question of immortality and how misery arises out of the existence of the ego. A Man Who Knows How to Console Himself looks beneath the apparent cheerfulness of a wandering monk and asks if there is really a happiness that endures through lifes ups and downs. No Regrets is a parable about the difference between the knowledge that is gathered from the outside and the knowing that arises from within. No Rest for the Living uses a dialogue between a despondent seeker and his master to reveal the limits of philosophy and the crippling consequences of living for the sake...
