Athena Press. Paperback. Condition: New. 416 pages. Dimensions: 7.9in. x 5.0in. x 1.1in. Houses represent money. not homes. The Nuthall Road neighbourhood is an unkempt blot on the riverbanks of a rural English enclave, populated by a motley crew of classless families, misfits and racketeers. For Cassius Priest, the neighbourhood presents a rare opportunity for redevelopment; an Arcadian ideal of a setting in an increasingly urbanised world. An honest man in a dishonest market, Priests good intentions bring him into conflict with a collection of opportunists, rogue traders and a cast of Machiavellian professional rivals. This, along with a number of unforeseen and sometimes grisly factors, paves the way to disaster. They say an Englishmans home is his castle; and The Road to Riches demonstrates that it would take a royal ransom to shift him from his turrets. This item ships from multiple locations. Your book may arrive from Roseburg,OR, La Vergne,TN. Paperback.
