This remarkable autobiography began with a newspaper interview the artist gave journalist Gladys March in 1944. From then until the artist s death in 1957, she spent several months each year with Rivera, eventually filling 2000 pages with his recollections and interpretations of his art and life. Written in the first person, My Art, My Life is a richly revealing document of the painter who revolutionized modern mural painting, was a principal figure in launching the Mexican Renaissance and is ranked among the most influential artists of the 20th century.
