The 13th was performed at Whitehall the yearly ceremony of washing the poor mens feet in the banquetting house. The lord Fretchville being deceased, sir John Resesby is made governour of York Castle in his place. The 13th, about 9 in the evening, broke out a fire at the upper end of Newstreet, near Fetter lane, which consumed that house and the tops of one or two more, but by the help of the engines it was quickly quenched. Other addresses against the association have been presented to his majestic from the towns of Droitwich in Worcestershire and from Barnestaple in the county of Devon; and from the grand jury at the assizes for the county of Salop. The dutchesse of Cleaveland is arrived at Whitehall from France, with her son the duke of Grafton, who went over to fetch her. Severall merchants and others have subscribed a great summ of money, near a million, as a stock for carrying on a far greater East India trade then that which is at present managed; and they intend to petition his majestie to grant them a charter for that purpose. The 16th, being Easter Sunday, Mr. Roger L estrange and Mr. Miles Prance received the sacrament at St. Giles church in the feilds, one protesting that what he swore about L estrange s being at masse was true, the other denying it, that he never was in a popish chappell since 1660. The...
