Days Out Around Naples is a fact-packed travel guide written by a local. It introduces first-time visitors and long-term residents to a host of little-known attractions and activities around Southwest Florida. Do you know where you can: Take an airboat ride with a Miccosukee Indian? Go birdspotting in a 13,000 acre wilderness preserve? Learn how Collier County got its name? Take a guided tour of a long-forgotten religious community? Follow the extraordinary story behind the building of the Tamiami Trail? Visit a free Bird Sanctuary for exotic birds? Enjoy six different gardens showcasing Florida plants and trees? Visit Florida s newest city, founded in 2007? Dine and shop in the authentic birthplace of old Naples? Hitch a ride on an electric tram through the mangroves to the beach? It s all in this handy guide book! There are days out for history lovers, hikers, wildlife enthusiasts, amateur gardeners, bird watchers and shell collectors. There s even the chance to tour Naples landmarks on a Segway! These unique Naples activities are all described in full detail, along with photographs, directions,...
