His quickness or manner and readiness ofap. prehension were astonishing. A young lady, with whom be was one day in company, sat down to the harpsichord, in order to discover how ft. affected him. To the music he paid little atten tion, but he was greatly interested to discover, how the sounds were produced. He at the same. time sung a song in the Pelew style, but it was, very harsh., i. We have already observed that he was naturally polite-rie davat dinner- MrSi Wilson desired, him to help her to some cherries, when Lee Boo very quickly proceeded to take them up with hUj fingers. She pleasantly hinted his error, when h- immediately...
