

The Missing Deckpro Files (Paperback)

By Ewane Time

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2016. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Young prodigy Anthony Johnson couldn't believe his luck when he was offered a job at the Seattle branch of America's most popular software production company, APACOM. However, when Johnson is given the reigns of a new development program, the Deckpro files, his greatest career opportunity so far quickly crumbles into a deceitful power-play as he comes into contact with America's corporate elite. Tasked with creating the program that will single-handedly run the financial affairs of Saudi Arabia, Johnson finds himself becoming too privy to the affairs of his employers, and as a result ends up facing life behind bars when a beaten security guard accuses him of assault and stealing from the company. However, when the head of the legal department at APACOM's Chicago headquarters, Paul Mason, is called in to investigate Johnson's case, it immediately becomes apparent that there's much more going on than an alleged scuffle between co-workers, as the Deckpro files Johnson was working on prior to his arrest have also vanished. Yet as Mason digs deeper into the case he...
