Excerpt from Lincoln Centennial Association Addresses: Delivered at the Annual Banquet Held at Springfield, Illinois, February 12th, 1912, Commemorating the One Hundred and Third Anniversary of the Birth of Abraham Lincoln We look at the stars from two motives: because they are luminous and because they are mysterious, but seen through a perspective of fifty years, Lincoln appears to us as a brighter radiance and a deeper mystery - the mystery of individual genius. As the years pass by, the choicest spirits of the world are coming more and more to feel an absorbing affection for and to live as in the hallowed presence of this man who for a full generation went in and out among the people of Springfield. Lincoln believed in liberty. It was his oft expressed wish that all men everywhere might be free and he believed that the sovereignty of self over self is the highest liberty. He believed in equality - that as liberty is the summit of society, so equality is its base - equality before the law. He believed in fraternity and his definition of fraternity was that portion of each one's self which he gives up for others.
