I'd say with a smile, Serving Him was still worthwhile, He brought me the greatest joy I've ever known. Author Unknown See Haiti through the eyes of a young Midwestern boy as he recounts the experiences which caused him to fall in love with the country and its people. Wanting to be a blessing to others without asking for anything in return, as a missionary, Michael thought his life of celibacy was God's Will for him. Not knowing that God wanted to bless him with a wife and family, he rejected the thought of marriage for himself. Then the Lord said, There's your wife! This is a collection of testimonies of a couple who grew up in different countries and cultures with only one thing in common: their love for God! Enjoy the journey with Michael and Martine through the mountains and valleys as God creates faith in their lives. Will they hold onto that faith when God calls them to risk everything they have to prove their love to Him? Martine Bernard Miller was born in Port-au-Prince, Haiti. She graduated from high school in Haiti and is now attending Hillsborough Community College in Tampa, Florida. Michael Miller was born in Louisiana, Missouri and grew up on a farm in Pike County outside of Pittsfield, Illinois. He graduated from Pittsfield High School and received a bachelor degree in Business Management from Quincy University in Quincy, Illinois. Beginning at age sixteen, he began traveling to Haiti on missionary and humanitarian aid trips. Mountain Kids P.O. Box 292864 Tampa, FL 33687 by Douillard Studios.
