

Best of the Web (Paperback)

By -

Dzanc Books, 2008. Paperback. Condition: New. 2008 ed.. Language: English . Brand New Book. This print anthology compiles the best fiction, poetry, and nonfiction that online literary journals have to offer in an eclectic collection in the manner of other broad-ranging anthologies such as the Pushcart Prize and The Best American Non-Required Reading. This is the first substantial attempt at creating an annual print compilation of the best of material published online. [The] mingling and occasional blurring of genres distinguishes Best of the Web from any other print collections showcasing online literature.the book is heartily significant, featuring work that is sometimes surprising,and sometimes exhilarating--not unlike the Web itself. -- Los Angeles Times The Internet is built for this work: short and weird, just what one s attention span wants when clicking through. And Almond and Leslie wisely pick up on that, making the book worth paging through, as well. -- Time Out Chicago Such a development could not have come at a better time for onlineliterary publishing. -- Though publishing online provides us the opportunity to present fiction freefrom economic imperative, permitting us, our authors, and our readers to relishin the experiment of expression, one of our great regrets is...
