Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from The Story of Four Mile Colony: A Successful Demonstration of Human Conservation You would like to begin at the very beginning, would you? Well - long, long ago - hundreds of thousands of years ago the Site Of the Colony was the ocean floor. It was this same white sand, but all about was dark and still, with green water above instead Of the blue Sky. The tides moved gently back and forth, and strange creatures crawled and swam, and hid in the hollows when storms raged above. Perhaps that little hollow behind the dairy barn was once the home of an octopus! Then Mother Nature, slowly through the ages, changed things. She pushed the ocean back, and back, until the sea bottom became a sandy plain, with little rolling hills. There is life everywhere, in all the earth; and soon as the waters had receded to stay, growing plants replaced them - grass, trees, flowers. This change required many thousands Of years. Animals, too, came here to live - strange monsters that we do not know, and which have long since...
