Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.THE ASSURANCE OF OUR SALVATION: Witnessing the Gospel to Modern Doubters is a missional approach to the doctrine of salvation. Because the author studies this theme not as a systematic theologian, but rather as an evangelist and a preacher, it is like studying the doctrine of salvation in the field of practical theology. While the themes of the book are very relevant to the doctrine of salvation, the book discusses many issues most systematic theologians would never deal with. There is a gap between traditional seminary education which was fit to the context of Christendom and modern missional context. Many pastors feel unequipped or less prepared after graduation from their seminaries. This is even more the case as our culture is moving from modernity to postmodernity. The key question is how do we communicate the gospel message to non-Christians from a postmodern culture where absolute truth is denied. But the postmodern challenge is not the only challenge in a pluralist society. There are challenges to biblical authority that come from the age of reason. How do we, then, communicate the gospel with confidence in our culture hostile to Christianity? It is a time when more and more evangelists begin to see that there are two frontiers in the twenty-first century. There is a frontier of unreached people group where the worldview of fork religions prevails on one side. There is another frontier in the Pluralist society of the West where Christian worldview is being marginalized. The author of the book identifies these challenges because he himself has struggled with them for years as a pastor and as an evangelist. He searched for the answers for the key questions and when...
