SWALLOW

CreateSpace Independent Publishing Platform. Paperback. Condition: New. This item is printed on demand. 318 pages. Dimensions: 9.0in. x 6.0in. x 0.7in. Set against the dramatic backdrop of World War II, Nazi Germany, Swallow is the story of a young woman destined to fly. Gabriele Richter, the daughter of an ambitious German general, connives her way into the Luftwaffe, becoming Germany's only female fighter pilot and ace. Flying like a swallow, she defends the Fatherland with the gusto and fearlessness of youth, confronting death on every sortie and living by the Luftwaffe edict Fly till we die. On the cusp of womanhood, Gabi also learns about love. She shares her heart with Heinz, a young, impulsive fledgling pilot set on becoming a war hero. She bares her soul to Hans, an ambitious flight commander whose love is troubled with demons of self-doubt. She gives herself to narcissistic Kurt and his scar fetish, comforted by his unwavering loyalty. She confides in RAF Wing Commander Arthur Wilson, living in hope to love again. But, after discovering her beloved father, General Max Richter, has been implicit in horrific war crimes against humanity, she turns her back on the Fatherland, helping the enemy restore and fly Germany's latest weapon, the Me-262 fighter jet. With the end of war imminent, Gabi's tragic destiny is fulfilled, leaving General Richter to face retribution. This item ships from La Vergne, TN. Paperback.
