He is robbed at gunpoint on the way home from town. He has to walk several miles in cowboy boots that are not meant for walking. He gets chewed out by his boss for being late for a cattle drive. He helps a young cowboy grow up, even though the young man doesn't want help. He recalls a story of a friend that was attacked by Indians and loses all of his family. But later his friend hears that his daughter is alive and together they find her and are reunited. Later, on a trip to town he witnesses a murder. He saves a drunk from a bully but becomes a marked man himself. Lance is very excited as he rides on a train for the first time. Because Lance witnesses the murder, he is asked by the sheriff to become a deputy. Upon approval by his boss, he agrees. In their investigation he is sent to another town to check leads and helps find a person left for dead in a gold mine. He gets shot at, wounded in the line of duty and almost dies. He helps a damsel in distress rescue her business and her parents. He helps console a friend whose former girlfriend has her husband brutally killed in a card game.
