Tommy Kennedy owned a highly successful Real Estate firm in Atlanta. And he had all the trappings of success to show for it. But, he also had a secret. A secret so dark that even those closest to him didnt know. A secret so deeply imbedded in his soul that even he wasnt always aware of it. It gnawed at him. But then a mysterious encounter brought him face to face with that secret. The encounter leads to a transformation that only God can bring. The transformation comes from accepting and holding fast to His love. The Broken Door is about confronting the recurring sin in our lives. Whatever that sin is for each of us, that is our brokenness and it clouds our relationship with God. Tommy was good at hiding his brokenness behind the facade of his expensive toys and hard-charging business tactics. Only when he began to believe in Gods unconditional love and forgiveness was he able to have hope. Hope in the assurance of His love that starts us on the path to peace and healing. And in that hope, courage to tell others about it. That in our brokenness, maybe because of it, we are to be the door through which other find Christ. This item ships from La Vergne, TN. Paperback.
