MY RED SEA: A JOURNEY FROM WAR TO PEACE (PAPERBACK)

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . This gritty and suspenseful true account will keep you engrossed! Born in a cult and raised, a victim of poverty and abuse, A.M. Rhodes became a refugee of the brutal Liberian Civil War at twelve years of age. As with many other victims of trauma, she suffered from undiagnosed Depression, Anxiety and Post Traumatic Stress Disorder. In My Red Sea, A.M. Rhodes tells the story of her journey through the war with her family. With the perspective of a child and the wisdom of an adult, A.M. Rhodes unearths some of the wrong mindsets that she believes shaped her world with its sometimes destructive culture and complex traditions. Today, A.M. Rhodes is a mother of three. She is a wife, business owner, worship leader, pastoral care representative, holistic health enthusiast, and author! A.M. Rhode defines herself as having faith but not being religious. She also encourages other victims of abuse, war, and trauma to find healing, victory, and peace in Jesus and by seeking help with the right healthcare professionals for a proper diagnosis and treatment. Amber and her family support three children in Cambodia and have helped many others in Africa. She is passionate about helping others through charitable organizations and in their local community. A.M. Rhodes now lives in Australia with her husband and children. My Red Sea is the story of Amber s journey from victim to victor and from war to peace!.
