WINGS FROM VICTORY: TRANSFORMATIONS AND OTHER GIFTS OF ART, LIFE, AND TRAVEL IN FRANCE

Travelers' Tales. Paperback. Condition: New. 304 pages. When Erin Byrne travels, she lets the journey transform her. Wings from Victory is a collection of stories about her unique and authentic experiences in France. Some come through serendipity, good fortune, or by accident. But each time, Erin takes the experience, digs deeper and discovers meaning from it. Each story demonstrates in a different way, this idea put forth by Joseph Campbell: The passage of the mythological hero may be overground, incidentally; fundamentally it is inward into the depths, where obscure resistances are overcome and long lost powers are revived. From Czannes studio in Aix-en-Provence to a tiny village in the Jura Mountains, from a tiny bistro on the Left Bank of Paris to a plain high above the Normandy beaches, Erin travels through France collecting stories, characters, tastes and secrets that act as ingredients for change. She learns to trust her intuition after listening to Henri Cartier-Bresson's advice. After gazing at van Gogh's self-portrait, Erin finds a way to be more honest. The Introduction presents a gift, wrapped in shiny fuchsia paper, waiting on a table in a café near Saint Sulpice in Paris, just as the place begins to wake up. The book is about the gifts we all glean from our travels, and will inspire readers to unwrap their own images and impressions in a new way. Wings from Victory is arranged in 10 chapters of three stories each, with Introductions which include quotes by many of Erin's colleagues in the travel writing world, including Tim Cahill, Marcia DeSanctis, Jeff Greenwald, and Larry Habegger. Each Introduction links Erin's travels through France with deep psychological, spiritual or emotional changes. The first chapter, Les Deux Garçons, follows Erin's teenage son Brendan and his friend as they swagger their way through Paris and...
