After finding out that her husband has been living a double life, one that included one of her close friends, Dr. Erica doesn't know if she can continue to be with Bishop. He hurt her more than words can explain, and she's not sure if she'll be able to forgive him. Bishop tries to explain the situation, but will that stop Erica from signing on the dotted line? Dr. Grace is enjoying being with Exodus, but she has trust issues, and after going through his phone, she isn't sure if Exodus is ready to be in a committed relationship. Exodus goes through great lengths to show Grace he's ready, but will that be enough to keep Grace on his side? Dr. Monae is thrilled that her husband, Greg Johnson, served his time as the governor of Texas and is now able to be there for her and their twins. They've reconnected and are more in love than ever, but someone from her past threatens to ruin her perfect relationship. Will Monae confess secrets and take a chance at losing her family, or will she continue to lie to the man she loves? In this steamy and lusty finale, friendships are tested, lines are crossed, and love is definitely tested. These three young doctors are about to find out just how strong they are when it comes to love forgiveness.
