Excerpt: . . . ir peers. So if indeed these figures are true, and mass media is telling the stories, what kind of culture have they defined Today's hearing is not about the First Amendment, pointing fingers, assessing blame or condemning the entertainment industry. It is instead about corporate responsibility and the stewardship of public trust. As a parent of two small kids, I know that child-rearing starts in the home and believe that parents cannot shirk their responsibility to police their kids activities to limit their exposure to violence. But I say to our panel today that we cannot do it alone. Yes, the First Amendment is a right, but with it comes a weighty responsibility, so to a large degree we must rely on you, the leaders of the entertainment industry, to do the right thing by not marketing violent material to our kids. So today we are here to do what parents on their own do not have the collective power to do: demand that the entertainment industry tell us what they have...
