Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Pan-Anglican Papers: Being Problems for Consideration at the Pan-Anglican Congress, 1908 The individual spiritual life is deeply affected by the community s life in which it plays its part. In some forms and moulds of human society character can be cast strong and entire; in others it can only be cast flawed and ineffective. It is within the mission of the Church to consider these momentous facts, and to pray and to work for such social moulds as impress her own ideal on character. There is a Church society whose objects are thus defined; 1. To claim for the Christian law the ultimate authority to rule social practice. 2. To study in common how to apply the moral truths and principles of Christianity to the social and economic difficulties of the present time. 3. To present Christ in practical life as the living Master and King, the enemy of wrong and selfishness, the power of righteousness and love. What better definition can be given of the duty of Churchmen in face of the social problem?...
