We give youth, neglected places that you find in childhood. We are the only remaining link between justice and politics. We are everything. We re waiting period, are outraged by injustice and time is on our side. As serious cleaning women and corridors of hospitals and millions of buildings here in Berlin. They save their money slowly, with no chance that something came of it. Supervisor talking to them like slaves, back pain, their house further away than ever, how a country with an ironic name like Democratic Republic of Congo, but time is on our side. They feel it. They think that will save a cent by cent, and finally return home and buy a piece of good land, and everyone will give them respect because they did it in Europe. That s how we feel, because now everything vague and nobody stands next to justice, and the wars we do not understand, but time is on our side: one day reveal the hidden connection between all the wars and riots, the complex relationship between...
