Since her departure the lair of the Creatures has been turned in a very dangerous nightclub, and a religious sect bent on the redemption of her kind are getting worryingly close. As Connie attempts to discover the root of her return, and right some of the wrongs in her past, she finds herself questioning everything she thought she knew about her own existence. A gritty British urban fantasy mixed with elements of classic gothic horror, L.E. Turner s debut novel turns Bristol into a home and haven for a variety of supernatural Creatures.
