

Whispers from God (Paperback)

By Teddie Statler

Xulon Press, 2016. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Teddie Statler was born in Maine and at the age of ten she became a ward of the State until eighteen. As such she was placed in countless homes for varying periods of time. As such she was expected to work for her keep by cleaning house and taking care of the family s children when she was but a child herself. With the exception of one placement she was abused in varying ways. Each time she expressed her experience she would say But God was there. One family took her to church and she enjoyed teaching Sunday School lessons and in early 1938 she went to the altar of the Nazarene Church and gave her life to Jesus. Teddie excelled at everything she did. She was valedictorian at her 8th grade graduation and salutatorian at her high school graduation, missing valedictorian by only tenths. After graduation from high school she worked her way through one year of commercial school where she learned to type and take shorthand, a skill that would server her well for many years in the world of work. Her business career...
