Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, 2018. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.All the Things I Should Have Told You by T.E. Hodden One snowy night, in an Accident and Emergency ward, a life hangs in the balance, and your best friend is going to tell you everything you don t know about him, about your life, and what you both might be about to lose. Unforeseen Circumstances by Melissa J. Crispin Marlene Martin wants to start over, to escape the sad past she can t seem to leave behind. Between her marriage falling apart and her brother passing away, she has no reason left to stay in Mistport, New York. Her pending move across the country is exactly what she needs-or so she thinks. Brady Miller doesn t want to love Marlene, not after their agonizing divorce. His constant travel for work keeps his mind off of where they went wrong. But when he moves back to his small hometown to help with his brother s business, seeing her again awakens the feelings he had long pushed aside. Each time they bump into each other, his interest in her only deepens. When Marlene wakes up in the hospital after a terrible accident, she turns to the first person who enters her mind: Brady. Her world is shattered when he reveals that they re divorced and her brother is gone. Brady helps her sort through the pain of memories she s forgotten while he tries to avoid complicating her life even further. Is Marlene s memory loss a second chance for their love, or will history repeat itself? Somewhere Between Falling by Laurie Treacy Recent college graduate Danielle Haviland had her future planned as a bride, band PR manager, and world traveler. Her dreams...
