

Doctrine of Vibration: An Analysis of the Doctrines and Practices Associated with Kashmir Shaivism

By Mark S. G. Dyczkowski

State University of New York Press. Paperback. Condition: New. 308 pages. Dimensions: 8.8in. x 6.0in. x 0.8in. Cutting across distinctions of schools and types, the author explains the central feature of Kashmir Shaivism: the creative pulse of the all pervasive Consciousness called SAiva. This is also the central theme of the Hindu Tantras, and Dyczkowski provides new insight into the most literate and extensive interpretations of the Tantras. This is a serious, scholarly and personally committed approach to a highly significant topic. It makes accessible materials which are not widely known and not readily available. -- Wilhelm Halbfass, University of Pennsylvania There is no other complete study of the Spanda, which is central to the SAaiva thought as it was developed in Kashmir. The treatment of the subject is sound, scholarly, exhaustive and penetrating. -- Andre Padoux, Centre National de la Recherche Scientifique, Paris This delves into a relatively unexplored area of Kashmir Shaivism, i. e. , Spanda, and offers a comprehensive first-hand treatment. The author brings forth new information and fresh insights. -- Navjivan Rastogi Abhinavagupta Institute of Aesthetics and SAaiva Philosophy University of Lucknow, India This book is significant from four points of view. First, it breaks new ground in Indian philosophy....
