

The Moonlit Moose: An Alaskan Tale (Paperback)

By Elizabeth J Fallon

Ken and Elizabeth Fallon Publishing, United States, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Who knew that a moonlit moose in Denali Park, Alaska, would someday result in Bethany Page receiving an invitation from the President of the United States in 2005 to be the first artist featured in the new wing of the National Art Gallery in Washington, D.C.? And what did she do, she panicked and did what most of us would do, she called her eight-five year old parents. They want a history of how I became a painter, she told them and their response, It's about time you got that story of a thirteen year old ranger's daughter's first summer in Mt. McKinley Park, down. That was forty-seven years ago and as your parents can testify, your memory doesn't get any better with age. As you write, send us the chapters and we'll help anyway we can. And thus began the story of the summer that changed everything. So what is it that turns a summer into the pivotal point of your life? In Beth Page's case it was a crusty diminutive...
