Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Excerpt from Transactions of the San Diego Society of Natural History, Vol. 4: Palaeozoic Crustacea This series of papers is issued by the San Diego Society of Natural History, San Diego, California, to the Presidency of which, for a period of over fifteen years, its author, the late General Anthony Wayne Vogdes, was elected from year to year until he was allowed to retire at his own request. The principal part is the continuation of a series of bibliographies of Palaeozoic Crustacea which the General has been publishing since 1890. He was in the midst of the preparation of this work at the time of his death in his eightieth year. He died February 8, 1923, after an illness of only two days. General Vogdes was born in West Point, New York, April 23, 1843. He volunteered as a drummer boy almost at the beginning of the Civil War, gained a second lieutenancy before he was twenty and finished a brevet major For gallantry and meritorious services during the war. After the War he decided to follow the lead of his father, a general in the Regular Army, and of his great uncle, Mad Anthony Wayne of Revolutionary fame, and entered the Army with an officers commission. He served with distinction and to the satisfaction of his superiors until he was retired a brigadier general on reaching the age limit. It is of record that he carried two books with him through the Civil War, a Bible which his mother had given him and a general work on Geology. It is not now known whether his taste for things geological came from the study of this book...
