Excerpt: . . . a source of income to the Board, and we take this opportunity of acknowledging the kindness of Rev. JOHN B. THOMPSON, D. D. , who donated to the Board the copyright of the Book held by him and refused payment for the same--even for his incidental expenses, his desire being to leave with the Church of his fathers a token of affectionate remembrance. The Board tenders him hearty thanks for his gift, with best wishes for prosperity in his new field. The other half of the copyright was purchased from the Musical editor for the sum of one thousand dollars, so that the Board now owns the whole. The Board also acknowledges the kindness of SAMUEL B. SCHIEFFELIN, Esq. , who has made it more deeply his debtor by an additional gift of a set of stereotpye plates of a valuable book called An...
