

In Remembrance of Future Present: A Journey Through the Art and Heart of Lisa Gabriel (Paperback)

By Miss Lisa Marie Gabriel

Createspace, United States, 2005. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . This collection was first published by Poetry Monthly Press in 2005 and has been recently revised. I am told I am old-fashioned, that my poems speak of a bygone age. Perhaps they do, but I prefer to think of them as timeless. One of them, The Dreamtime, is exactly about living in that timeless dream state, a state of conscious creation. When we go within and the heart speaks perhaps it will speak a language that resonates with a time past or perhaps a time future? All I know is that I wrote myself a path out of my own personal darkness and this is meant to be an intimate sharing, not a grandiose one. The title In Remembrance of Future Present is taken from one of the poems in this collection and derives from the sense of timelessness and detachment I felt during the period these poems were written. These were poems written over an intense and sometimes painful period of reflection; written and shared with love they reveal the workings of an inner self in a struggle to break free...
