At The Crossroads You to the left and I to the right, For the ways of men must sever - And it well may be for a day and a night, And it well may be forever. But whether we meet or whether we part (For our ways are past our knowing), A pledge from the heart to its fellow heart On the ways we all are going! Here s luck! For we know not where we are going. We have striven fair in love and war, But the wheel was always weighted; We have lost the prize that we struggled for, We have won the prize that was fated. We have met our loss with a smile and a song, And our gains with a wink and a whistle, - For, whether we re right or whether we re wrong, There s a rose for every thistle. Here s luck - And a drop to wet your whistle! Whether we win or whether we lose With the hands that life...
