

Supermarket Diaries

By Nina Belen Robins

Thompson Columbus, Inc., United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 216 x 140 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.For more than a decade, I have been a supermarket cashier, seeing customers for five minutes at a time as they pass through my line. At best, they are polite to me; at worst, they look right through me or take out their frustrations on me. And, in return, I have lost faith in humanity, and compassion for them. I wrote these poems to try to regain that compassion to find a way to think about them as individuals with troubles of their own. Mild-mannered grocery store employee by day, Nina Robins is a well-known performance poet who has twice performed at the National Poetry Slam. Her poetry has been described as exceptionally appealing, heartbreakingly honest, and subversively deep for work so overtly entertaining. - Taylor Mali, author of What Teachers Make.
