Sold As Is; Cottage at Cedar Crest In this extraordinary, heartfelt narrative Ellen launches us on a journey through mesmerizing lake stories as the backdrop to her main tale: embarking on the adventure of a life time. With us readers as her crew, she steers a course through the riveting and humorous mishaps of her adventure in renovating a summer cottage that has belonged to her family through generations. Like all good sea tales, Sold As Is shows that the human spirit is stronger than insurmountable challenges; in this case, insufficient finances or knowledge. In her honest look at her fear and failures, she is ultimately transformed. She is an inspiration for others to follow their passion when only fear is holding them back, where success is measured when you have followed with your heart.
