In all religions there is the command of prayer. Who do you pray to? To God. What is the result of your praying? The happening of miracles is possible, in all times, and everywhere, and namely today as well. How do you pray today? Just use the method Emile Coué presented to us. Emile Coué was a French pharmacist. When he gave out medics to his patients and customers he realized: he could just hand over the medic without saying a word. Or he handed it over adding confirming words like: That s good! . When he spoke positive words the situation of the patient was much better than when he remained silent. But why? There is another factor, he concluded, regarding our health. This factor is our subconscious, which can be impressed. And which heals us in all cases, working over night or over time. Very important, it is during sleep that our subconscious is most active. Because at daytime we are very busy and our personal subconscious, taking care of everything, is busy, too. At night time, when we are sleeping, our best friend and helper is free to obey our sayings, our praying. So, immediately, before sleeping, we are telling ourselves (telling our subconscious) positive sayings on our health and welfare. Can such a simple method work? The method to bring about the cure seems almost too simple to tell. Because we must use a sing-song of childlike simplicity. Please mind: the Coué method is simple. But all great things are simple. This method is simplest. So it is the greatest. There is a subconscious (soul or Genius, or whatever you may call it), the greatest,...
