

The Walk-In Closet

By Abdi Nazemian

Curtis Brown Digital. Paperback. Condition: New. 274 pages. Dimensions: 9.5in. x 6.0in. x 0.8in. Absorbing entertainment. I walked into Nazemian's walk-in closet and didn't want to walk out. Kelly Oxford, author of Everything is Perfect When You're a Liar Absolutely engrossing read from page one- Abdi Nazemian has painted a world so vivid and real that even if you know nothing of Tehrangeles, by the end you feel as if you are a part of it. I simply COULD NOT put this book down! Busy Philipps At once wickedly funny and devastatingly moving, The Walk-In Closet is a thrilling ride from start to finish. Nazemian surprises with every turn he takes, telling a story that vividly illustrates the price of living in a closet. Chaz Bono, author of Family Outing, The End of Innocence and Transition! relished every moment of this warm, funny, brutally engaging novel. Abdi Nazemian's Los Angeles is both uncannily familiar and entirely foreign. Put this in the canon of LA literature: Nazemian has written a side of Los Angeles prevalent in real life but rarely seen in fiction. Katherine Taylor, author of Rules for Saying Goodbye Ladies: If you like Shahs of Sunset you'll love The Walk-In Closet. Abdi Nazemian shines...
