In 74 New Yorker, a man inherits his father s old car and discovers that a strange sense of empowerment comes with it. He soon finds his nostalgic connection to the car spiraling into a pattern of bizarre and risky behavior that has tragic results. Flagman tells of a retired art professor whose spontaneous act of protest against the Iraq War sets off a public reaction that he doesn t expect. When one of his students helps him continue the protest, they are faced with the dangerous consequences of waging peace.
