Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from The Standard Speller: Containing Exercises for Oral Spelling; Also, Sentences for Silent Spelling Since we learn the orthography of words mainly in order to be able to write them correctly, it is a matter for surprise that the practice of silent spelling by writing words from dictation is not resorted to more generally in instruction. Experienced teachers are well aware that many learners will spell a word orally with accuracy, who, if they had been made to write it, would have blundered. In England, as we learn from Mr. G. F. Graham, author of an improved manual of English Spelling, the old practice of making pupils repeat words arranged in columns is now nearly superseded by the far preferable plan of Dictation Exercises. Mr. Smart, the eminent lexicographer remarks, that the ordinary, and perhaps the shortest way of learning spelling is by the eye, in the same manner that we learn pronunciation by the ear. The testimony of many eminent American teachers in support of these conclusions might be quoted. The present volume has been prepared with the view of combining the advantages of oral spelling with silent spelling, by writing. Some simple introductory exercises are first given, followed by sentences for writing, some of which are in script type, that may be transcribed by pupils requiring the practice. In Part Second, words for oral spelling are classified according to their prominent elementary vowel sounds. Following these are classes of words illustrating the vowel sounds in unaccented syllables, penultimate and final, and the difficult consonant sounds and substitutes. These are followed by exercises on words containing silent letters; on homophonous words; Rules for Spelling; words alike...
