

The Opium of the People

By J Alan Erwine

Paperback. Condition: New. 152 pages. After a near-miss of a giant comet, the American people fall under the control of a radical right-wing fundamentalist Christian government, ruled by the Grand Patriarchs, that slowly strips away their freedoms and establishes a rule of law that even the dictatorships of the 20th Century couldnt have dreamed up. Forced into virtual seclusion, Edward Silverberg, a former English Lit professor, finds himself on a path that will lead to either his destruction, or the destruction of the Grand Patriarchs. . . or maybe both. This item ships from multiple locations. Your book may arrive from Roseburg,OR, La Vergne,TN. Paperback.
