A neat chaos, an illusion where the main puppets are these seven billion people who populate the Earth, secretly guided by a small society named the Circle. This is Claire Baudin s world. The Baudins are one of the thirteen families that create the Circle, having a word to say in the way that the economy, politics or any development on the globe works or ever did. The Circle has always existed, like an image of God himself in the world; nobody knows how it started, not even Claire; everything is uncertain, covered in mystery. And just like the Circle, the Baudins have given generations after generations of men and women who have commanded over time the start of all the wars, the crisis, the historical periods. Everything was and still is their creation and they have obeyed the Circle s rule. Until now. Claire is an independent, twenty one year old girl who has just spread her wings and detached herself from her family, taking her sister with her and moving to the mansion bought for her by her grandfather. She, unlike all her whole family, is not ready to embrace the rules of her society. The way the world has been ruled without anyone knowing or approving it, the secrecy, the hunger which was placed in some parts of the globe, while others have been fed with gold, everything is repulsive for her; but most of all, she hates the idea of being forced to marry someone from her group just so that the legacy could continue its destiny only inside the Circle. She hates the thought of creating a marriage based on interests and not on...
