

A Misunderstood Action (Paperback)

By Janna Daley

Rosedog Books, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . The easiest way to keep a secret between two people is if one dies, the saying goes. Secrets. Beginning with, Don t tell your mother what she s getting for her birthday; it s a secret, to, Someone said I could, to, I ll end up in jail if it gets out. We all hide things. Most hidden things are innocuous, Don t tell anyone I told you. The more damaging range from, If my wife finds out about her, or, I wonder if they ll believe I didn t mean to kill him? One thing about secrets is everyone keeps them and everyone else wants to know yours. The higher you go socially, economically, politically or in business, the more toxic the secrets are. Seems the top of each heap got there by successfully preserving theirs while expeditiously exposing those of their rivals. Adam Brock Calley, President of the United States, was all too familiar with the power of secrets and the necessity of keeping them away from the public. The sheer weight of the skeletons in his closet was enough to...
