Abbott (James Abbott), active 1851-1872). Joseph Wolf (21 January 1820 - 20 April 1899) was a German artist who specialized in natural history illustration. He moved to the British Museum in 1848 and became the preferred illustrator for explorers and naturalists including David Livingstone, Alfred Russel Wallace and Henry Walter Bates. Wolf depicted animals accurately in lifelike postures and is considered one of the great pioneers of wildlife art. Sir Edwin Landseer thought him . .without exception, the best all-round animal artist who ever lived . Juliana Horatia Ewing (nee Gatty) (3 August 1841 - 13 May 1885) was an English writer of children s stories. She displayed sympathetic insight into children s lives, admiration for things military, and strong religious faith. Youth and marriage: Known as Julie, she was the second of ten children of the Reverend Alfred Gatty, vicar of Ecclesfield in Yorkshire, and Margaret Gatty, who was herself a children s author. The children were educated mainly by her mother, but Julie was often the driving force behind their various activities: drama, botany etc. Later she was...
