Having formed this decision, while Her Majesty appreciates the considerate and liberal spirit evinced in the proposition of the Sub-Committee, to place the statue experimentally upon the arch, on the condition that, if its appearance should be disapproved of by Her Majesty and Her Government, the Sub-Committee would undertake to replace matters as they at present stand, Her Majesty regrets that she cannot sanction a step which, while it would probably add to the expenses already incurred by the promoters of the design, would certainly lead to a renewal of conflicting and embarrassing discussions. I have, and c. His Grace the Duke of Rutland, K. G. (signed) Morpeth. and c. and c. and c. The Sub-Committee of the Wellington Memorial present their compliments to Lord Morpeth, and beg leave to acknowledge his letter of the 5th,...
