Excerpt from Miscellaneous Pamphlets The Church that is better at argument must give way to the Church that is better at blows. Theology is not a dialectician with words - she debates with the The young plant of Christianity never grew till it was fenced round with a hedge of swords. Proof, say you If such a statement be not true on the very face of it, history can produce proof in abundance. The Saxon axes hewed Christianity out of Britain it had to be restored by the monks of St Augustine, and they managed to re-establish it, only because they managed to get the axes on its side. The Society of Jesus fairly planted Christian colonies in Japan but, in Spite of the sword of the Spirit and the whole armour of righteousness, Christianity became utterly exterminated before a torrent of spears. If Christian cannon had only spoken louder, the sound of the glad tidings of great joy (save the mark!) might to-day have been ringing from the cathedral of Yeddo. If, instead of the sword of the Spirit, there had...
