By A C True

Forgotten Books, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from An Address on the Educational Values of Courses in Agriculture The wider range of studies characteristic of modern education has grown out of the fact that new subjects have proved themselves to have a utility similar to that contained in the older curriculum in realizing the aims and results of education. The conclusion that education should embrace man s relation to all forms of human activity has been accepted. The technical and industrial have as clear a title to a place in any complete system of education as the literary or the professional. The paper read by Dr. True before the Graduate Summer School of Agriculture is an effort to set forth the claim of Agricultural courses to a place in our educational system and to justify their educational value. It is worth while to call attention to the popular misconception of these courses which amounts to a prejudice against them. The paper will, upon a careful reading, clear away many errors and give a clearer view of the current work in agricultural science. If...
