Has suggested that the American government send an ambassador to Santa Barbara. Its ideals and spirit are not of the ?ag, but belong to another world. In America we believe in the government of all the people, by all the people, for all the people. In Montecito the ideal is the government of all the people by the snobocracy, for the snobocracy. Now a snob is a person of common or inferior worth who assumes the airs of superiority on the basis that we are saved, not by grace, but by ancestry and gold dollars. George Washington would have fought just as hard to free the people from Montecito ideals as he did to escape the ideals of King George. It is not a question of brains, character and the spirit of honorable endeavor here In this live oak vale, but just the question of a mere money bag. The American Ideal Demands the Free Mingling of All Kinds and Classes In Montecito none but the rich are wanted. The chained gate, the haughty look, the domineering manner all tell the story of exclusiveness. In America it takes all of us to make a nation. As well build a wall around the slums of New York, a coal camp, a farm section, a factory community; and say that this is all there is of America. As to put up a wall of exclusiveness about Montecito. Our future as a nation depends on keeping the bottle well shaken up. If any single ingredient rises to the top or settles to the bottom it is time to send for the undertaker. These retired money mad...
