Farrar, Straus and Giroux, 2011. Book Condition: New. Brand New, Unread Copy in Perfect Condition. A+ Customer Service! Summary: "Rich Rodriguez never had a chance as coach of the Michigan Wolverines. He showed up with a glowing resume and got himself eaten alive. John Bacon's account of Rodriguez's epic failure is a cautionary tale for anyone who doesn't realize that being a major college football coach requires one to be part CEO, part psychologist, part carny barker, and all crazy." Charles P. Pierce, author of Moving The Chains: Tom Brady and the Pursuit Of Everything "College basketball has Season on the Brink . High school football has Friday Night Lights . Now college football has Three and Out , which takes you inside the locker room to show you what it's really like to be a college football coach and player. If it surprised meand it did!m sure it will surprise even hardcore fans. If you care about college football, you'll want this book." Adam Schefter, ESPN "John U. Bacon is one of the best reporters/writers of my generation. Three and Out proves it. It's one of the most riveting non-fiction works I've read in years, in any genre. The eyewitness details from the locker room, the sidelines, and the most powerful offices on a college campus are breathtaking. Get this book. You will thank me." David Shuster, Emmy Award-winning broadcast journalist "John U. Bacon's report on the weird world of college football is eye-opening, and occasionally jaw-dropping." George F. Will.
