

Children Think Suicide Too! (Paperback)

By Leslie Ann Hill

Royal Court Press, United States, 2015. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Children Think Suicide Too! is about young children trying to endure the burdens of abnormal negative experiences that have happened to them. Whether they realize how much of an impact these experiences have had, small or large offenses are hard for them to understand and endure while growing up. It addresses emotions that children feel, such as fear, rejection, not feeling loved, loneliness, stress and disappointment. Having the emotion is one thing but learning to cope with it is another. Children experience adult emotions but lack the capacity to express or deescalate the trauma on their own. They become insecure and uneasy due to this inability to process their thoughts and feelings. After all how does a child express fear, emotions of feeling unloved, bullying, and such things? This book helps you understand what is needed to guide them to express in their own way yet not destructive. It also will show you the authors own experience and through it all, they can still be ok. The hurt doesn't have to last forever. She will share her fortune with...
