He went to his mom to get her to find a dream book passed down from her mother. He wanted her to help him interpret his dream. In the dream, his mother was pregnant and Maxwell had a mission to bring people together. Eventually Maxwell and his mom discovered that the dream was symbolic of Maxwell new friends of various races/colors in high school. Maxwell was the common denominator. The dream became a reality, when all the youth gathered here and there at a place owned by Mr. Frances, a retired boxer turned mentor and community activist. Maxwell s father used funds saved by his deceased son and increased by community youth works and the family. Antoine, who tutored kids in their neighborhood. Maxwell had a whole new world opened up to him through his new friends.
